

Constellation West Hires Dale Stucke as CFO

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8, 2016 — Constellation West, a leading provider of mission-critical technology solutions for the U.S. government and one of the fastest-growing service-disabled veteran-owned, women-owned, small disadvantaged businesses in the country, announced today that Dale Stucke has joined the company as chief financial officer.

"We are excited to welcome Dale to the Constellation West leadership team," said Lisa Wolford, president and CEO of Constellation West. "As we embark on a period of extraordinary growth and expansion into new market areas such as health IT, Dale's experience in financial and business strategic planning will be a great asset to help us achieve that continued forward momentum."

Stucke is a seasoned finance executive and certified public accountant with more than 25 years of experience with Fortune 500, small and private corporations, including some of the largest leaders in government industry such as BearingPoint, Booz Allen Hamilton, General Dynamics, GTSI Corp., Unisys and, most recently, USIS.

In his new role as CFO at Constellation West, Stucke will oversee all of the company's financial operations, with a focus on optimizing strategic and financial performance, enhancing corporate value and maintaining financial excellence.

Stucke is a graduate of the University of Cincinnati, where he received a bachelor's degree in business administration. He also holds a Master of Business Administration from Wright State University in Ohio. Stucke holds a Certified Public Accountant designation in the state of Virginia, and has been an active member of the Professional Services Council and the IIA.
